

Evaluation of Exposure

- Introduction of Field Team Members
- Update on Reviews
- Current activities
- Next steps

Community Advisory Committee Meeting, Wednesday , September 2, 2009

Field Team

- Study Manager
 - Blair Jackson
 - here for the whole study
- Field Team Members
 - 6 to 8 research assistants
 - here for the whole study
- Senior Advisors
 - Eliot Sigal – Study Director
 - Dr. Murray Lee – Principal Investigator
 - Dr. Celine Pinsent – Senior Advisor
 - In and out at various points throughout study

Update on Reviews

- Peer reviews
 - Dr. Le and Dr. Nieboer
 - very positive
 - few suggested changes - mostly with write up
 - changes incorporated
- Ethics review
 - Received full ethics approval to proceed with study

Current study activities this week

- Team arrived in Flin Flon this week
- Setting up team office at 32 Main
- Sampling frames and plan being finalized
- Delivery of information packages to stakeholder organizations
- Commence delivery of information letter to sampled families

Communication activities this week

- Study announcement ad in the Reminder on Friday and next Monday
- CAC meeting
- Post information on Soils Study website
- Set up study team phone line
- Commence initial contact with sampled families to describe study and determine eligibility

Next steps

- Study will roll out for the next six weeks
- Family interviews and urine sampling to start the week of September 7th
- First blood clinic week of September 21st (at 32 Main)
- Field portion of study likely to continue to early-mid October
- CAC members to be provided status updates by email each week